Questions Up.

BULLETIN

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Paris, April 22.—Vittorio Orlando, the Italian premier, was absent this morning when deliberations were resumed at the Paris "white house." President Wilson and Premier Lloyd George and Clemenceau were present.

The president and the two premiers went again into the Japanese questions presented by Baron Makino and Viscount Chinda, which were taken up when the deadlock over the Adriatic question was reached yesterday.

WILSON PROTECTS PRINCIPLE
By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, April 22.—Administration officials were advised in a confidential cablegram from Paris today that in the consideration of problems confronting the peace conference, such as Italy's Adriatic claims and the question of an alliance to protect France from future aggression, President Wilson would take no action which might in the slightest degree jeopardize the league of nations or conflict with its fundamental principles.

The outcome of the apparent deadlock over Italy's Adriatic claims is awaited in official quarters here with evident anxiety. The situation as pictured in press dispatches is regarded as serious, and there was no message from Paris yesterday or today similar to those of last week reporting gratifying progress at the peace table.

Most of the witnesses are old men and many of those called at court opening were reported dead.

NAVY SEAPLANES TO MAKE FLIGHT ACROSS ATLANTIC

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, April 22.—Three naval seaplanes, the NC-1, NC-3 and NC-4, will attempt the flight across the Atlantic ocean. They will leave Rockaway Beach early next month, but so far as is known now, no decision has been reached as to whether the route will be direct from Newfoundland to Ireland or via the Azores.

Each plane is expected to carry a crew of five men, will be driven by four Liberty motors of a total of 1600 horsepower, and will carry sufficient gasoline to make a stop on a direct flight to Ireland unnecessary unless storms or strong head winds are encountered.

Peoria Youth Sought for Attack on Woman

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Man Commits Double Murder, Then Laughs

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Rock Island, Ill., April 22.—Jealousy inflamed by liquor caused a double murder in Rock Island last night. Robert Cook, 31, shot Cecil Nesbitt, 27, a Davenport barber and Mrs. Ida Woods, proprietor of the "hole in the wall" cafe. Nesbitt died almost immediately, and Mrs. Woods died this morning.

Cook, too drunk to realize the severity of his crime, laughed with glee for several hours at the police station after he was arrested.

Eugene Cahill and Edward Pitt of Chicago returned to that city last evening after having spent the Easter at the Edward Cahill home on West Third street.

Amsterdam, April 22.—The Hungarian government headed by Bela Kun has resigned under pressure of Rumanian troops, according to a dispatch to the Central News from Vienna quoting Rumanian troops, according to a dispatch to aerial mail from Budapest. Wild chaos is said to prevail at the Hungarian capital.

It is reported that Czech forces have joined the Rumanians and have defeated the Hungarian soviet troops.

FALL WAS EXPECTED.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Budapest, Sunday, April 20.—The downfall of the Hungarian soviet government was expected here, as a result of the desertion of 30,000 Szeckler troops to the Rumanians and new movements against Hungary by the Czech Slovaks. It is said that a socialist democrat regime headed by Sigmund Kunfi, present commissary of education, may succeed to control.

The red guards have been provided with hand grenades and efforts are being made to intensify the discipline of the people here. Conscription has been proclaimed, surcharging the atmosphere with uneasiness. Fresh extremist outbreaks are dreaded, as the conscription order is regarded as certain to destroy the order which has hitherto been maintained.

Arrests Cause Splits.

The action of the soviet government in arresting members of the clergy has united the Catholics, Lutherans and Calvinists in strong opposition and on the whole the soviet forces are so obviously in the minority that the regime cannot possibly continue. BULLETS THICK IN ELECTION AT OREGON SCHOOL

Martin Engelkes and S.
C. Claussen Fought
Pistol Duel.

One man was wounded twice and another probably owes his life to an inferior quality of powder used in one of the two guns whipped into action Saturday night during a row at a school election held at the Limerick school in District 117, Ogle county, three and a half miles east of Oregon.

Martin Engelkes was shot twice, Sheriff G. D. Banning said, by Scholt S. Claussen, president of the board of school trustees and judge of election. One bullet went through Engelkes' hand and the other passed through his arm. A bullet fired at Claussen by Engelkes was spent when it had penetrated the school trustee's clothing and only inflicted a bruise on his chest.

Engelkes was arrested Saturday at midnight by Sheriff Banning on a complaint sworn out by Claussen, charging assault with intent to kill. He was released from custody on a $2,000 bond for a hearing.

Hearing is Deferred.

State's Attorney W. J. Emerson had Engelkes' preliminary hearing postponed for a few days when the case came up Monday morning in Justice E. A. Ray's court. Attorney Emerson is

Read Your Paper All Way Through

Your Evening Telegraph contains a great deal more news nowadays than it formerly did. There is much more local news, much more telegraphic news, a complete and accurate market report, and in fact, the Telegraph is a much more complete and modern newspaper than has ever been published in Dixon before. You cannot get the news of the day by glancing over the front page. You must read the paper through, carefully, to get it all.

The full report of the Associated Press leased wire, which gives us more than six times the volume of outside news heretofore published in Dixon papers, the doubled local news force, the doubled typesetting machine capacity, all make it necessary to condense and economize on space in order that all important news may be published.

We cannot put it all in a prominent position on page one. Every page in the paper contains important local or foreign news. Get the habit of reading your Telegraph from "cover to cover," if you would get the most out of your paper and keep thoroughly posted on current events.

COUGHING SPELL CAUSE DEATH OF AMBOY FARMER

Fred Haefner Suffered
An Attack Shortly
Before Death.

(Special to The Telegraph.)

Amboy, Ill., April 22.—A jury, impaneled by Coroner Whetston on his arrival here yesterday afternoon, returned a verdict that Fred Haefner, whose body was found on the lounge at their home three miles northwest of Amboy yesterday morning, had come to his death through natural causes. The jury, composed of Frank Flach, G. P. Finch, W. M. Finch, Carl H. Sartorius, Walter D. Scott and William L. Leach, examined but two witnesses—Mrs. Haefner and John Sauer, who was employed on the Haefner farm.

Sauer testified that earlier in the morning Mr. Haefner had assisted him load manure, and that he was forced to stop because of a severe coughing spell. After the spell had passed he complained of a severe pain in his chest and in his head, but he continued working, helping with the loading of two more loads of fertilizer, after which he went to the house. Mrs. Haefner had driven to Amboy, and Sauer went to the field.

Mrs. Haefner, on her return from town, found her husband on the lounge, and she at once feared he had passed away, as his face had turned black, probably the result of a hemorrhage caused by his coughing, and she summoned Mr. Sauer and a physician. Mrs. Haefner said her husband had not complained of feeling ill, and in everything else her testimony corroborated that of the hired man. The deceased was 40 years of age August 4, last, and is survived by his wife and several children, and owned the farm on which he resided.

DIXON YOUNG MEN TO OPEN GRANDY GARAGE

Frank Perry of this city and his brother, Fay, of Ottawa, have opened the garage at Grand Detour under the firm name of Perry Brothers, and they plan to make it an up-to-date institution in every respect. Both young men have recently been discharged from army service in France, Fay having been in the mechanical branch of the air service and Frank having been in the motor truck branch, and each has had a number of years' experience in the automobile business. Fay is now at the Grand Detour institution with George Netzt & Co., to take effect in two weeks. Their many friends predict success for them in their venture.

DIXON PEOPLE OVERSUBSCRIBE VICTORY BONDS

OVER THE TOP.
ALTO,
CHINA,
WYOMING,
ASHTON,
DIXON,
AMBOY.

With Dixon township over the top with an $81,000 over-subscription on Volunteer Day, and five other townships of the county with their quotas more than subscribed during the day, the Lee County Finance committee this morning had no fears that the county would not meet its quota of $1,026,400 of Victory Loan bonds.

Close on the heels of Alto and China, which townships were reported over the top yesterday afternoon, came Wyoming and Ashton with their quotas of $52,900 and $41,100 respectively, subscribed before the afternoon was over, and these four will receive German helmets.

About the County.
Reports from the various townships in the county, with a few exceptions were very encouraging today, and it is believed that every township will meet its quota before the end of the week—and the campaign will last three weeks. It is thought that Dixon township may over subscribe to the amount of $125,000 as many large investors who were out of town yesterday are known to be contemplating purchase of the Victory bonds. The banks will also continue to receive subscriptions for the three weeks period.

JOHN BANKS CHOSEN CHAIRMAN OF BOARD

Supervisor John W. Banks, of Brooklyn township, was elected chairman of the Lee county board of supervisors this afternoon, defeating Charles Ewald of East Grove township, by a vote of 18 to 6. The meeting was called to order by retiring chairman James Buckley, of Maytown, and Supervisors Aschenbrenner and Edwards appointed tellers.

Following the seating of the new supervisors, and the election, the retiring chairman was called upon for a few remarks. In his characteristic way, the veteran supervisor from May township made a short talk and then turned over the gavel to the incoming chairman, who after a few remarks, called the meeting to order and proceeded with the routine of business. The supervisors drew for seats for the coming year and continued with the appointment of committees and discussions of matters that are being presented by the various supervisors.

INCREASE TANKAGE STANDARD OIL CO.

Manager Ross Crawford of the local Standard Oil company's plant has a force of men at work, installing a new 15,000 gallon steel storage tank. Concrete piers are in course of construction and as soon as completed the big tank, which weighs almost twelve tons will be put in position.

With the installation of this additional storage capacity, the East River street plant will be given a great deal of space. The demand for kerosene for use in tractors has necessitated the increase of storage, and a smaller tank now divided and used for the storage of both kerosene and gasoline will be used entirely for kerosene after the installation of the new tank.

The amount of business carried on by the Dixon plant has also necessitated the increase of delivery service and an additional truck is to be added to the present equipment in a few weeks.

PARENT-TEACHERS' MEETING THIS EVE

The Parent-Teacher association of the Dixon High school will hold a meeting this evening at 8 o'clock in the assembly room of the high school. The program will include music by the high school orchestra, an address by the president of the association, Mrs. McWethy, and a talk by Secretary Davis of the Y. M. C. A., on the importance of physical education. An open discussion upon Secretary Davis' topic will follow. The newly drawn constitution will be presented for consideration. The business session will be followed by a social hour and all parents and anyone interested in the work of the high school are invited to attend.

MORE WINTER WHEAT IN LEE THAN EVER

According to reports from the office of the county soil advisor Lee county farmers are raising more wheat this season than ever before in the history of the county. Reports from all parts of the county are very encouraging as to the outlook for a bumper wheat crop. The reports show that large quantities of spring and fall wheat have been sown, but of the two the fall wheat appears to be more promising for crop production.
The weather of the past few weeks has been ideal for grain, clover, alfalfa and the pastures. As soon as the spring work is well under way the farm advisor plans holding a series of township meetings throughout the county and notices to this effect will be mailed out to members of the Soil Improvement association.

ASSISTING IN OFFICE.

Miss Evelyn Angier, of Sublette, is assisting in the office of the county soil advisor during the absence of Miss Mabel Bethard, who has been absent from her duties for several days, taking care of her mother, who has been quite ill.

SHORTAGE OF FARM HELP IS PRONOUNCED

Members of the Lee County Soil Improvement association from all parts of the county, report a marked shortage of experienced farm labor this spring. The condition, according to the County Soil Advisor, is even more serious than a year ago. A large list of applications are filed with Advisor Griffith by members of the association who are anxious to secure experienced farm hands. The wages for single experienced farm hands at this time are from $45 to $70 per month and men cannot be secured to accept these places.

ASK DEMONSTRATION OF MULTIPLE HITCH

Lee county has asked for a demonstration of the improved multiple hitch method as shown recently at Ottawa in LaSalle county. The county soil advisor attended this meeting with a party of Lee county farmers, there being more than 200 farmers present on the one day.

If possible to secure a similar demonstration for this county, it is quite probable that a date in August will be determined upon, to precede the time for the fall plowing. Farmers from all parts of northern Illinois will be invited to attend this demonstration.

Mrs. Jacob Eisecker and daughter have left Amboy for McAllisterville, Pa., where they will remain through the summer visiting with relatives and friends.

Dr. and Mrs. O'Malley, of Ohio, Station, visited over Sunday with relatives in Amboy.
Deputy Game Warden Alec Sauers went to Dixon this morning to confer with school heads, relative to the study of bird life in the schools, a project which is being urged by the state game warden.

Howard Patterson and daughter, Misses Bessie and Mary, of Spruce Hill, Pa., have arrived in Amboy and will spend the summer visiting with their son and brother, A. K. Patterson, who resides on the Rock farm north-east of Amboy.

MAY MAKE TRIP TO "AGGY" COLLEGE

The office of the county soil advisor is considering plans for sending a special train from Lee county to the state agricultural college at Urbana in June. This county has been invited to send a special representation of farmers to the state college for two seasons and the shortage of train equipment on account of the troop movement has discouraged such a trip.

It is believed this spring that a sufficient number of members of the soil improvement association will be interested and would enjoy making the trip to the college. It is planned to have a special train leave Amboy early in the morning, making the trip in one day. County Soil Advisor Griffith has invited any who would be interested in making the trip to communicate with him at once. A circular letter will be mailed out to the members later containing information and the final plans.

Edward B. Wingert, son of Attorney and Mrs. E. E. Wingert, left yesterday for Payson, Ariz., where he has accepted a very fine position.

HOW-TO-GROW

SNAP BEANS.

Snap beans, sometimes called bush beans, bunch beans, or string beans, are one of the most important crops for the small garden, and will produce a large amount of food on a given area. The first planting may be made quite early, provided the beans do not come through the ground in time to be injured. It is a good plan to follow the first planting in a few days by a second planting to safeguard against loss of the first planting by a late frost. Successive plantings should be made at intervals throughout the season in order to give a continuous supply. In sections where the heat of midsummer is such that beans will not thrive, two or three plantings may be made in the springtime, then no further plantings until August or early September, at which time one or two plantings may be made for fall use.

Beans do best on warm, well-drained, sandy loam soil, but they will grow on almost any good garden land. While beans require enough richness in the soil to make them grow rapidly, they should not be fed too heavily on nitrogenous matter because of the tendency to increase the tops at the expense of the pods.

One pint of snap beans will plant a little more than 100 feet of row. The seeds may be placed in hills, five to a hill, and the hills spaced one foot apart, or they may be drilled, with one bean every three inches in the row. The depth seeds should be covered depends on the character of the soil. If it is light, sandy loam, the seed should be covered about one inch and the ground slightly firmed. If the soil is inclined to be heavy, the seed should be covered so deeply, and care should be taken that the soil is not packed over the beans.

In case of a heating rain after planting and before the beans are up, the surface soil over the rows should be loosened by means of a steel rake, care being taken that the beans are not injured in the process. Beans should never be cultivated or hoed when the foliage is wet with rain or dew. Forty to sixty days after planting will be required for snap beans to mature, and each planting will continue to supply pods for about two or three weeks if weather conditions are favorable.—United States Department of Agriculture.

Senator Smoot Will Back New Covenant

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Ogden, Utah, April 22.—That he will support the league of nations covenant, provided it contains the amendments that have been reported by the newspapers, was the statement of Senator Reed Smoot at a non-partisan banquet last night.

The Utah Senator said that he understood from newspaper reports that the amendments would include provisions as to the Monroe doctrine, that the league could not say how many troops should be supplied for foreign expeditions, that the league should not have control over internal affairs of any country, that no country would be required to become a mandatory against the wishes of its people.

"I would support any league of nations, pact or treaty that would tend to lessen war," said the senator. "I wouldn't turn over the United States to Asiatics or Europeans who never knew peace or liberty."

Class B—From 15 to 18 years. Plunge for distance, 40-yard swim, 20-yard back and 40-yard breast.

Class C—19 years of age and over. Plunge for distance, 100-yard swim, 40-yard back and 40-yard breast.

There will be awards to the five associations having the highest total number of points, individual awards will be given to the highest ten records in each event in each class.

GRANDMA KNEW

Breaking up colds was one of the easiest things that grandma did. With only goose grease and turpentine she got some wonderful results. And you can't beat that remedy now.

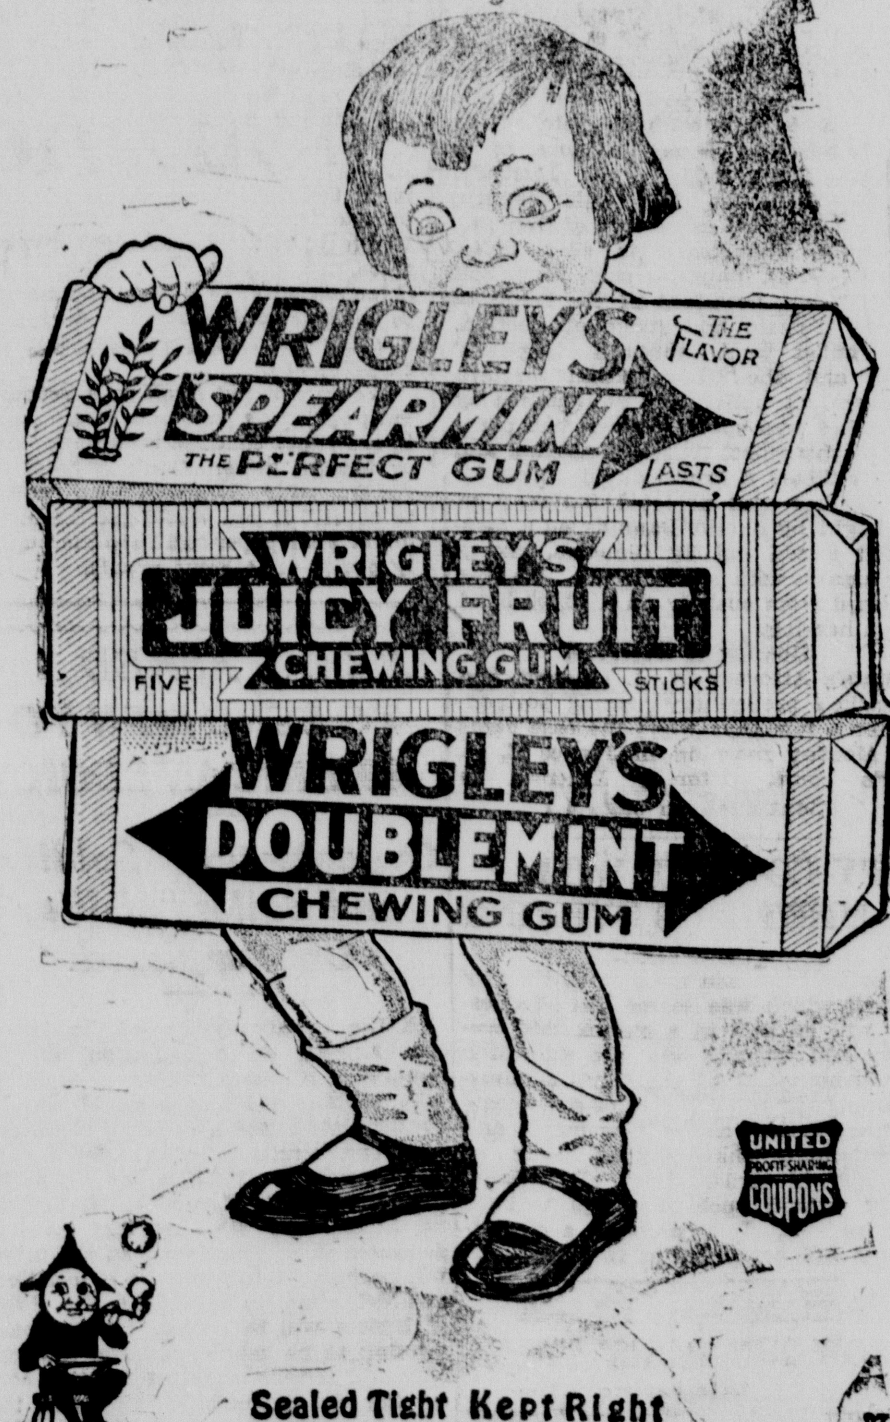

But you can make it work more quickly. MENTH-O-EZE is made of goose grease and turpentine with menthol, the great Chinese remedy, together with peppermint, wintergreen and other healing oils added. Rubbed on the chest, the goose grease and turpentine work from the outside as surely as they ever did. But the fumes from the other oils, inhaled to the linings of the throat and lungs, soothe the raw surfaces and draw out the soreness, giving relief in 20 minutes. Colds caught at the start can nearly always be broken up with MENTH-O-EZE. Keep a jar handy and be prepared. In opal jars, 30c and 60c.

THE PROMOTER'S WIFE

By JANE PHELPS.

A CONFIDENTIAL CONVERSATION. CHAPTER LXXIV.

When I asked Mr. Frederick what he thought of Blanche Orton my heart seemed to almost stop beating so anxiously did I await his reply. Would he think that she and Neil?—

"Mrs. Orton is hard up. She is the kind of women we see occasionally in the west," he interrupted my thoughts. "She is hard as nails, too clever to be wicked, knowing she is not, caring nothing what people say—at least, I judge she does not."

"No she never did! Even when Mr. Orton was alive. But, then people simply smiled at her action; now they talk."

"I see, I know very little of society folks. I know a good woman when I see her, and an honest man. I know too, a clever woman like this Mrs. Orton. How long have your husband and his friends been going there?"

"A long time—nearly six or eight months. Ever since I refused to entertain these men here. I did wrong."

"That's a question I can't answer. You certainly could not entertain that bunch at Mrs. Orton's last night whether you could have prevented Forbes from getting mixed up with some of them if you had allowed a few like Scott to come here, I don't know. I don't think of that. I would rather lose every dollar I have in the world than see you making free with those people I was with last night."

"You are so good to me. I don't see why," I murmured, all the time knowing why—that he cared for me. Then before he could answer my tactless question I asked another. "How can Blanche Orton endure them? She is educated, accomplished, dainty. As I spoke I remembered what she had said about resting as she would be at her best when she was going to be bored."

"If she wasn't all those things she wouldn't be the kind of a woman who could help in promoting. Add to what you have said, cleverness, need of money, love of luxury, and you have the typical women aid to any promoter."

"Then you think that"—

"That you have cause to fear her?"

reading my thoughts unganfully. "I do not think so—not in the way you mean. She is fascinating, and very beautiful. But a man with a wife like you would hardly allow himself to be duped by a woman of her type. Then too when men and women are in any sort of business deals, either honest or dishonest, they seldom have love affairs also. They don't go together. I would not worry about that phase of the matter if I were you.

"I was so relieved I sighed audibly. This man's plain common sense view of the matter had taken away the jealousy I felt—at least for the present."

"Then you think that what Mr. Forbes and others said is true? That Neil, Mr. Forbes is not quite—honest?" My face turned as I put the question, yet I must know.

"I am afraid that all his schemes won't stand daylight as I said. He can't be entirely ignorant of the fact, and she is the brains of all the things he goes into. There are usually three or four types in all promoting outfits. The society man, or the man with education and appearance, the bluff common man whose very bluntness causes confidence, the politician often, and either some woman like this Mrs. Orton, or another man who is equally clever at entertaining. Wine and women sometimes play a big part if the deal is crooked."

"Do they blame Neil for being so—I was going to say generous, but instead I changed to extravagant?" For this? I gestured to include house, everything.

"Yes. They say he uses other people's money to live as you do, instead of trying to make them the profits he promises. I am sorry. But I must tell you the truth."

"No wonder Lorraine—and you also discouraged my social plans."

"You are young, just put them off a while. I must go now. I shall be in town a few days. I am going to talk with your husband like a Dutch uncle, as we say. Then I will tell you of a plan I have."

"You are the only real friend I have in the world!" I said impulsively, giving him both my hands. He drew me to him, kissed me once on my forehead, then left without another word. Tomorrow—Sad, Disturbing Thoughts Follow.

Improve your heating experience

Each stormy day impresses everyone that first cost ought never to stand in the way of the best heating outfit. Admittedly the outfit of an IDEAL Boiler and AMERICAN Radiators will cost more than short-lived hot air furnace or stoves. But, consider what you get in this first cost—an outfit that will save more coal for the heating service performed than any other kind of heating—that will take less labor and attention to operate—that is more cleanly—that is free from fire-risk—that is automatically adjusted to weather fluctuation—that is free from repair and over-haulings—that is a permanent addition to the value of the property and will last as long as the building stands.

AMERICAN & IDEAL RADIATORS & BOILERS

A million buildings now heated with IDEAL Boilers and AMERICAN Radiators profited in great comfort and fuel-money saved by the wise investment in these outfits. By the turn of a valve the precious heat is shut off from rooms not used or needed, and families during even the past acute fuel condition have been able to live in IDEAL comfort and burn less coal.

Easily put in old homes

Take the lesson of preparedness to heart. Profit by the experience of this million of ideal fuel-savers and find out right now what an IDEAL heating outfit will cost for your home. The dealer in your locality will be glad to give you an estimate based on a carefully measured plan to suit exactly your heating needs. THE AMERICAN LEGION.

It was accepted as a matter of course that as soon as the war was over there would be formed a military organization similar to the Grand Army of the Republic, the Confederate Veterans and the Spanish War Veterans. Such an organization is now definitely under way. It calls itself the American Legion. That name may be changed, but it would be hard to find a better one.
There is to be a preliminary meeting in St. Louis next month to arrange for a national convention in November, at which time the plans will be perfected.
The most active leader of the movement
at present seems to be Lieut. Col. Theodore Roosevelt, jr. It is already suggested that there may be a more or less close affiliation with the organizations
of fighting men in allied nations.

The announced purpose of the Legion is to offer membership to all officers and enlisted men in the United States military or naval service during the war.
No doubt there will be some special insignia and perhaps some special degree of honor for those who saw actual service in France. It is only right and fair, however, that membership is to be open on a practically equal basis to all the soldiers and sailors, including even those who never got any further than the training camp. There were just as good fighters in those camps as ever fought in France, and it was not their fault that the war ended when it did.
They were all eager to go over.

Lieut. Col. Roosevelt explains the objects of the Legion as being "to perpetuate comradeships formed during the war, to preserve the history of the conflict and to maintain the principles for which American soldiers and sailors trained, fought and died." These are worthy aims, valuable to the nation as well as the men concerned.

It is promised that the Legion will be nonpartisan, and will not interest itself in politics. Therein lies the only conceivable danger of such an institution.
Four million men would be a tremendous power in politics if they worked and voted en masse for any political
end. But this is a thing no longer possible and no longer necessary in this country. Only in case there should appear a great wave of disloyalty to combat, would these men be likely to vote
as a unit. Such a solidity would mean saving the nation again.

There is no fear that the men who so nobly upheld American ideals in this war will ever take concerted action to their country's harm.

TWO HUNDRED TREES TO A MILE.

New Bedford, Mass., is said to hold the record for New England in the number of trees planted by its citizens in the last few years. That city has plant-

ABE MARTIN

Th' funny thing about a long lineup,

ed 4000 shade trees along twenty miles of streets since 1912. In a bulletin issued by the Massachusetts Forestry association it is estimated that those trees will be worth over a million dollars to the city in twenty-five years.

The money value is not all that New Bedford will get from its many plantings. Its streets will be far more beautiful for those trees than they could be without them. Quite contrary to a belief that a city is no place for shade trees, New Bedford citizens realize that the city is where they particularly belong. Trees will thrive anywhere with a reasonable amount of care, and in a thickly settled district they are a source of constant joy and inspiration to the people living or working there.

There are many cities and towns in the country that need to follow New Bedford's example and plant more trees
every year. Song birds and children love the trees, and grown-ups will find they are happier for the beauty and shade the trees will offer in a few years'
time.

Let us plant half a dozen trees when ever we cut down one.

MIGHT EMULATE TURKS.

Turkish authorities are bringing to trial those responsible for the Armenian atrocities and massacres, and, finding them guilty, are administering fit punishment. Kemal Bey, a high Turkish dignitary, was publicly hanged in the public square at Stambul recently, as responsible for some time of the most terrible evidences of Turkish brutality.

This official administering of justice is undoubtedly dictated by a healthy fear of allied opinion. But whatever may dictate it, it is what should be done, and it is what the world would like to see Germany doing.

On the contrary, Germany conducts trials which are such farces as to merit
the suspicion and disgust of the whole world. They vindicate everybody, from the Kaiser, recently declared guiltless by their tribunal, to those responsible for the murder of Captain Fryatt, English sea captain foully put to death by German orders.

The failure of Germany to convict and punish her guilty only makes it more plain that the allies will have to do the punishing.

PAVING TO STAY PAVED.

Paving gangs are abroad in the land.
This is the time for every community
to do a little forecasting of the future, and provide, before the paving goes into place, for the laying of all the various pipes and lines which the growth of the towns and cities will undoubtedly require.

We all want and expect our towns to grow and improve, and to be improved

as they grow, yet we put in our pavements and then tear them up for each successive pipe which means improvement—sewer, gas, water or electric wires.

Much valuable time and money would be saved if communities backed their faith with works, and provided for the future for which they pray.

GRADE CROSSINGS.

The other day in Indiana five or six little school children were killed when a train struck the wagon that was hauling them home from school. This happened on a grade crossing. It would have been cheap at the price if every grade crossing in the United States could have been done away with just to prevent this one frightful accident.
Think of the thousands of similar accidents it would avert every year. Lee county has its share of them. Grade crossings should be absolutely done away with, everywhere.

PEACE SUMMARY.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Germany has bowed to the virtual ultimatum of the entente powers relative to the sending of "mere messengers" to the peace congress at Versailles and will be represented by a delegation having full powers to negotiate a treaty of peace.

This closes what for a time seemed to threaten a grave complication in the way of the congress. It is probable, however, that the actual meeting of the allied and German delegates will not occur until April 28, as the change in the German plans and the physical impossibility of having the official draft of the treaty ready for presentation on April 25 makes a postponement of the historic gathering imperative. Germany is ready to call for a plebiscite on the treaty, it is reported from Berlin.

Italians Leave Council.

In the meantime the Italian situation
is a source of much concern in Paris.
After conferences with Premier Lloyd George and Clemenceau, Sunday and Monday morning, Premier Orlando and Foreign Minister Sonnino of Italy absented themselves from the meeting of the council of four Monday afternoon.
Whether this marked a virtual withdrawal of the Italians from the conference was not developed. President Wilson, still opposed to recognition of the treaty on London, under which Italy lays claim to Fiume and the Dalmatian coast, has prepared a statement on the subject which will be made public if the deadlock continues, it is said. This was expected Monday night, but it was not issued from the Paris "white house."

Revolt in Turkey

A revolution has broken out in Turkey and a soviet government has been set up, according to news dispatches originating in bolshevik quarters at Odessa, where it is said that official announcement of the news has been received. Constantinople is said to be under the rule of a bolshevik committee.

Hungarian Soviet Deposed

The Hungarian soviet government, headed by Bela Kun is reported to have fallen, Rumanian forces advancing from the east have been joined by Czech troops, and the soviet army has been defeated, according to advices. Szekler soldiers, representatives of a minor race living in the Transylvanian Alps, have deserted the soviet army and joined the Rumanians, it is said. Advices from Budapest indicate that the social democrats will take over control. They are headed by Sigmund Kunfi, the commissioner of education in the soviet cabinet. Chaos is reported to prevail in Budapest.

Munich Soviet Crumbles

The soviet regime at Munich also has crumbled, the end coming Saturday, according to reports reaching London.
The ministry, headed by Herr Hoffman,
is at work and a resumption of governmental functions is under way.

On the Ural front in Russia, forces
under the command of the Omsk all-Russian government have again defeated the bolsheviks who are reported to be retreating. Demoralization in the bolshevik ranks is reported and in the Viatska government the peasants have revolted against the Lenine-Trotsky
government.

BULLETS THICK
IN ELECTION AT OREGON SCHOOL

chairman of Ogle county's Victory loan committee and sent word that he would be very busy organizing the loan workers.

"Heeled" for Action.

Apparently they attend school elections in peaceful Ogle county "heeled" for action, as both of the principals in Saturday's night's shooting affray carried revolvers where it was easy for them to "draw."

That trouble was expected by the two men, Sheriff Banning said, was evident by the fact that they were armed. It was understood that differences of opinion between Claussen and Engelkes had arisen over the Limerick school teacher. Children of both men attend the school and the story is that those of Claussen received a trifle higher marks than Engelkes'. This caused ill-feeling as Engelkes blamed the teacher, who had a champion in Claussen.

Cuss Words Precede Shooting.

There were probably half a dozen persons in the school room when the shooting commenced. Two were women, the wives of the principals in the duel. Mrs. Engelkes carried a baby in her arms.

As Engelkes entered the school room
with H. Mammenga, Sheriff Banning was told, he uttered several cuss words, for which he was rebuked by Claussen. Engelkes knocked Claussen from the chair on which he was seated and the two are said to have clinched.

Claussen pulled a .32 caliber revolver from the side pocket of his coat and shot five times at his assailant. Only two bullets took effect.

Seeking protection behind a door, Engelkes drew an ancient-looking weapon and shot three times, according to the Sheriff. One bullet penetrated Claus-sen's clothing, but because the powder was old or spoiled, the pellet merely discolored and bruised the skin on his chest. The bullet was found in his underclothing.

Jumps Through Window.

Claussen is said to have taken flight, jumping through a window. Others in the room when the shooting started had already chosen the same exit.

The room was filled with powder
smoke and it was almost impossible to distinguish forms. In true western style, it is said, the innocent bystanders flattened themselves on the floor when the shooting commenced. The women screamed at the first shot and continued until after the eighth.

Engelkes went over to Chana after the shooting to have his wounds cared for by a physician. Claussen went to Oregon and swore out the warrant for Engelkes' arrest.

Sheriff Banning arrested Engelkes on the road as he was going toward his home after having his wounds dressed. The sheriff said that he did not put up any resistance and when arrested the gun used in the fight was still in his possession.

Both men are between 40 and 45 years old. Engelkes has five children two or three of whom are of school age. Claussen is the father of several.

Maxwell

—a car made of more
brains than metal

SO much material and so much labor go into every car.
And so many bookkeepers record the business done.
Have you ever stopped to consider the brain power
that goes into a car?

Take the Maxwell, and note such men as these employed
in its development:

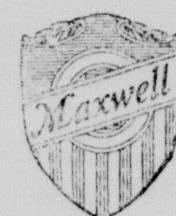

1. The originator of quantity production in the automobile business and the master mind in the employment of machinery to produce quantity.
2. One of the two leading production men in America.
3. One of the two leading metallurgists in America.
4. One of the leading foundry engineers in America.
5. Probably the leading cost man in America.
6. A road testing engineer that has driven a car further than any living man.
7. An accountant that keeps a daily balance in a business that exceeds $50,000,000 a year.

These are but seven of more than thirty men of exceptional capacity who team together in the operation of the Maxwell business. The career of any one of these men furnishes a great human story.

The result is evident in the Maxwell of today
—a car with a lineage of 300,000 before it. All designed and built on the original chassis program.

It is a car that grows better day by day.

Because more brains than metal are put into it.

LEE CO. ASKED TO SEND MEN TO AMERICAN LEGION

feer in charge of our Congressional District, it appears that Lee county should be well represented, as well as the other down-state districts. The convention is in the nature of a mass meeting, yet it is imperative that the county be represented in an orderly manner, so I am asking that you publish this. Every man from this county, who has been in uniform, in the Army, Navy or Marine Corps in the great war, who will attend this meeting in Chicago on Sunday, May 4th, 1919, at 10 a. m., should communicate with me at once by card or otherwise that he expects to go. He should also state whether or not he will pay his own expenses. As yet I am unable to state whether funds will be provided for those who do not pay their own expenses, but it is probably possible that some arrangement might be made. In any event, every man intending to attend should let me know so that a proper report can be made in ample time for reservation of place for the contingent.

The American Legion is "the real stuff," and the people of the county should be interested at once, because it is to be the best organization in the world. Our county should have nearly fifteen hundred members—young men, to gradually take the place of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Knowing that you will do all in your power for this great organization, locally, is a great help while the start is being made.

HAROLD F. SHELLER,
Phone 255, 115 Galena Ave.
Call

for election of delegates to the Caucus of the American Legion, to be held in St. Louis, beginning May 8th, 1919.

Notice is hereby given that a caucus will be held in St. Louis, Mo., May 8th, 9th and 10th, for the purpose of organizing in a non-partisan, nation-wide association, the officers and enlisted men who served in the Army, Navy and Marine Corps during the war, which will stand for Americanism and good citizens and for the ideals for which the American soldiers, sailors and marines fought.

The first step toward the creation of this association was taken by the organization in France of the American Legion whose membership includes officers and men at the time in France. The American Legion will send representatives to the St. Louis caucus and will submit for its consideration a constitution adopted by the Legion.

The American Legion designated Lieutenant Colonel Theodore Roosevelt as Acting Chairman. By its direction, Lieutenant Colonel Roosevelt on April 8th issued a call for the election by each state of delegates to the caucus.

Under the authority of that call, the temporary committee of the veterans of Illinois issued this notice to the veterans of the state and urged them to cooperate enthusiastically in order to assure proper representation at the convention.

On Sunday, May 4th, 1919, at 10 a. m., a mass meeting will be held at the First Infantry Armory, Michigan Ave.

TROOP ARRIVALS.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Boston, April 22.—The naval transport Vedic brought 58 officers and 2150 enlisted men to this port today. Included in the number were 200 members of the Yankee division attached to the 203rd field artillery. Part of the 128th field artillery, bakery company number 304 and Illinois, Wisconsin, Pennsylvania casual companies made up the remainder of the passenger list. The Vedic was met by a fleet of welcoming boats. One carried a delegation from Missouri headed by Governor Frederick D. Gardner whose special mission was to greet members of the 128th field artillery, made up almost entirely of St. Louis men. The Missouri delegation planned to remain in Boston until other units from the state now enroute reach port.

All Illinois men, who have honorably served in the uniform of the United States, during the war in any capacity, are invited to attend. Sixty per cent of the delegates allotted to Illinois must have served as enlisted men.

GERMANY READY TO LET PEOPLE VOTE ON PEACE

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Berlin, Sunday, April 20.—(Delayed)—Apparitions for an election, such as voting booths, lists and clerks, are all in readiness for an immediate plebiscite on the peace terms which can be completed all over Germany in 48 hours, according to information obtained from sources close to the government.

Preparations have been going on secretly for several days, it is declared, and if the terms are published one morning the referendum can be taken the next day and the answer can go to the entente 48 hours later. It is asserted that the only probable chance of an affirmative answer would be in case there is an agreement to negotiate details of the terms. Thus if an indemnity is fixed Germany cannot hope to dispute the total but must be allowed to send experts to discuss ways and means of payment, it is said.

Cabinet is Afraid
It is declared that the cabinet wishes to avoid the responsibility of either refusing or accepting the terms.

Therefore a plebiscite is almost certain. It is believed that the result will be a refusal to accept the peace terms because the people will overlook the consequences of such an act—the maintenance of the blockade, the stoppage of food importations and the accompanying evils which may be expected—in view of their reluctance to sanction harsh terms. It is asserted that an agreement to negotiate the details of the treaty is absolutely the only basis upon which Germany in her present mood will vote in the affirmative.

REPARATION OF RUSS CAPTIVES IN GERMANY BEGINS

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Coblenz, Monday, April 21.—(Delayed)—The task of repatriating approximately 500,000 Russian prisoners in the twenty camps in Germany which have been under the supervision of American army medical officers began a few days ago, according to word received by the branch of the American Red Cross here. The work of sending these prisoners of war back to Russia began in accordance with the decision of the allied armistice commission at Spa and advances received here indicate the undertaking will be completed in about six weeks. The Americans connected with relief work among Russian prisoners number more than one thousand. The principal duties of the Americans are to see that the Russians are properly fed and to supervise camp sanitation. Food shipments, handled by the American Red Cross have been passing through Coblenz for several weeks but these will cease soon and it is expected that within two months all American missions and soldiers in Germany who have been connected with relief work among Russian prisoners will be out of enemy territory.

TO APPROPRIATE $60,000,000 FOR BETTER HIGHWAYS

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Springfield, Ill., April 22.—Acting in accordance with an opinion of Attorney General Brundage, Representative Richard R. Meents of Ashkum, chairman of the house roads and bridges committee, today was planning to introduce a bill appropriating $60,000,000 for hard roads.

The 50th general assembly authorized an issue of road bonds in this amount, and the supreme court last week sustained the validity of the road bond act. While the department of public works and buildings has not determined what amount will be expended for road building the present year, it was believed the bonds might be disposed of this summer. Actual work is being delayed, it is said, because of the high price of building materials.

In view of this situation, considerable interest is being displayed in legislative circles in the report of the joint committee which investigated the alleged combine of material men to fix prices. Speculation is rife, a good many legislators who usually are in close touch with the inner circles being of the belief that the report will recommend manufacture of cement by the state for its own needs.

FRANKLIN GROVE AFFAIRS

(By J. C. COOK.)

Kindly Remembered.

The home of Mrs. C. D. Hussey was the scene of a happy gathering last Friday where the Priscilla club met in celebration of Mrs. Hussey's birthday anniversary. Many cut flowers, including hyacinths, daffodils and tulips, were among the decorations. A scrambled dinner was served and later in the afternoon a musical program was given and a delightful social time was enjoyed by all. Out of town guests were Mrs. Ralph Zarger and daughter from Dixon.

Could Not Agree.

The proposed plan recently considered by some of the business men here regarding the closing of the stores certain nights in the week has apparently died a natural and as it seems, an easy death. At least, it has passed into a period of "innocuous desuetude." Its sojourn amid the conflicting cares of commercial life in Franklin Grove was not only for its brevity and its history will occupy a small space in the archives of a forgotten past. It was found difficult to agree upon conditions that would harmonize with the interests of all concerned.

Election of School Director.

Out of a total of 93 votes for school director, Earl Fish received 59 and Emery Wolfe 34. It was a quiet election, without any apparent contest or excitement. Either one of the two candidates would have filled all requirements if elected. Mr. Fish will no doubt work in harmony with the other members of the board and prove a valuable factor in school interests. Mr. Freeman Lahman, the retiring member, has worked faithfully and earnestly for what he considered the best interests of the school and his many friends insisted on his being a candidate for re-election, but having served as long as he considered it his duty he positively declined any further honor in that direction.

Among the Churches.

All of the churches in Franklin Grove outdressed themselves Sunday in a grand celebration of the glad Easter time. The day was auspicious, filled with sunshine and warmth and beauty; the air vibrant with a new life, typical of that new birth, the hope and promise of life everlasting beyond the tomb. And then conditions were so very different from a year ago. Wars had ceased, armies had been disbanded and peace instead of anxiety filled the hearts of people.

Presbyterian Church.—The morning services at the Presbyterian church were most interesting and inspiring. A wealth of beautiful flowers, sweet immortalis, emblems of a resurrection, laden the air with their fragrance, while music and the inspiring thoughts expressed in song and sermon all harmonized in the celebration of the greatest event concerning mankind.

Methodist Church.—The service at the Methodist church Sunday evening was impressive and instructive. The Rev. Kerns had for his subject the greatest theme of all the ages: "The Risen Christ." His entire discourse was expressive of a thorough knowledge and deep study of the great historical event. It was considered one of the greatest sermons ever delivered in Franklin Grove. The music was furnished by the church orchestra and anthems by the choir. There was a large and appreciative audience.

Brethren Church.—Representatives of Mt. Morris College Volunteer Mission

Band gave an interesting program in the morning. In the evening an excellent program was given by the young people and every song and recitation was nicely rendered and thoroughly enjoyed by a responsive audience. There were many sweet voiced singers, the songs and every number on the program was well selected.

AT CAMP GRANT

Pvt. Jesse R. Johnson, of Co. B, 132 Regt., 33rd Div., is at Camp Grant is sick with scarlet fever.

After the armistice had been declared and the regiment was on their way into Germany, Jesse in company with some other soldiers was climbing up into a hay mow to spend the night. When near the top of a long ladder one of the rounds broke and Jesse fell to the bottom where some old machinery had been piled and striking on the blade of an old disc harrow, cutting a gash in his heel and cracking the ankle bone. With the grit of endurance born of a true soldier's courage, Jesse continued the march with his regiment for ten days. At the end of that time the ankle had become so painful and swollen that he could go no farther and he was compelled to submit to his first and only surgical operation. The wound was slow in healing but was considered out of danger and then came a day that he was to sail for the old U. S. A. He arrived at Newport News Sunday, March 23 and about a week later was transferred to Camp Grant arriving there Tuesday, April 1st.

This was about the first real resting place the boy had known for long weary months. Provided with every comfort that might be expected he relaxed into a perfect rest, and peace and quiet. The past with all its horrors was but a memory now; a memory of bursting shells, of leaden hail and flames shot from the mouth of hell. Of days of fighting, burned with powder, with sun, with wind and corroded with fatigue. Here was home and friends and rest, sweet rest. Under these conditions within a week's time the swelling in his ankle had disappeared and the wound was healing nicely. It seems a strange irony of fate, that after all he had passed through during the awful holocaust of war, that this soldier boy who had faced death in a thousand different forms, should be the victim at last of an accident and that he is now in a renewed fight for his life. This time it is a grim, silent, invisible enemy that must be fought alone in the hush and quiet of the hospital room.

This is another example of the heroic sacrifices of devotion to duty, of courage and strength of soul, that has been offered in humanity's cause, that liberty and righteousness should not perish from the earth.

The world knows the record and history of the 33rd or Prairie Division, of which Jesse R. Johnson was a member. Anyone can realize what every soldier in that division went through. They have fought everywhere in the A. E. F. with the British, the French, the Australians. They have been in each of the three American armies; First, Second and Third and in each of the nine American army corps except two; the First and Eighth. They have probably received more distinguished medals than any other division, including nine from the United States congress, eight from the King of Belgium, the croix de guerre and others from France, and more are on the way. In a brief history of the division by Sgt. Judy, he says: "Our troops have camped along the North Sea; on the Somme, on the Meuse, and on the Moselle. They have passed through Chateau Thierry, they have bivouacked in Germany, they have rested in the shadow of the Amlens cathedral, they have marched through all the shell torn streets of Verdun, they have eaten bully beef in Alsace-Lorraine."

A widowed mother here, waits and watches with anxious heart, every hour of the day and through the sleepless nights, some favorable tidings from her soldier boy. Here recent visit to him at Camp Grant has revived her hopes that under careful medical treatment he may soon recover and be at home. A most hearty welcome from all his friends and the entire community awaits the return of Jesse R. Johnson.

Today's Market Report

(By Associated Press Leased Wire)

NEW HIGH PRICE
RECORD IN CORN
REACHED TODAY

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Apr. 22.—New high price records for the season continued to be scored today in the corn market. The principal fresh incentive to buyers was a statement from the federal wheat director that he saw little chance of a return of the five cent loaf of bread, and that European supplies of foodstuffs would be even smaller this year than last year. On the advances which ensued, heavy profit-taking sales developed, and led to setbacks. Opening prices, which ranged from the same as yesterday's finish to 1 1/2c higher, with July 1.58 1/2 to 1.59 and Sept. 1.54 1/2 to 1.55, were followed by moderate further gains and then a series of reactions.

Oats duplicated the action of corn. After opening 1/4 off to 1/2 advance, with July 70 1/2 to 70 3/4, the market hardened a little and then tended to sag.

Provisions were somewhat easier despite upturns in the value of corn and hogs. Aggressive support was lacking. Hedging operations put some weight on the market later. The close was unsettled 1/2c net lower to 1c advance with July 1.58 1/2 to 1.59 1/2 and September 1.54 to 1.54 1/2.
